

Centre for Critical International Law (CeCIL)

Autumn & Spring Programme of Events

2018-2019

---

i) CeCIL Speaker Nights - in the Moot Court, Law Clinic, Kent Law School, on Tuesdays at 6 pm

Tuesday, 9 Oct.	Ioannis Kalpouzos (City University, London; Member, Legal Action Committee, Global Legal Action Network) – Critical transnational lawyering: the experience of the Global Legal Action Network (GLAN)
Tuesday, 16 Oct.	Matthew Nicholson (Durham University) – Postmodernism and the Future of International Law
Tuesday, 30 Oct.	Wouter Werner (Vrije University Amsterdam) – To Walk Before, To Talk Again: Recalling the Past in Preambles to Security Council Resolutions
Tuesday, 6 Nov.	Joint CeCIL/Centre for Critical Thought event, Bogomir Doring (mixed media artist), Hospitality (on medical conditions arising from the use of depleted uranium in armed conflict) and FACELESS: Re-inventing privacy through subversive media strategies
Tuesday, 13 Nov.	Michelle Staggs Kelsall (SOAS) – Human Rights Incorporated? Business and Human Rights in the Global Economy
Tuesday, 20 Nov.	Katherine Fallah (University Technology of Sydney) – Humanitarians, the Private Military Industry and the Consolidation of Corporate Power on the Battlefield
Tuesday, 27 Nov.	Joint CeCIL/Centre for Law, Gender and Sexuality event, Pride – Film Night
Tuesday, 22 Jan.	Surabhi Ranganathan (University of Cambridge) – Unmaking the Ocean
Tuesday, 5 Feb.	Celine Tan (University of Warwick) – The Privatisation of Development Finance and New Frontiers of Transnational Economic Governance
Tuesday, 5 March	Mr. Gay Syria – Film Night
Tuesday, 12 March	Laurel E. Fletcher (Berkeley Law) – Let's Talk about the Boteros: Law, Memory, and the Torture Memos at Berkeley Law

ii) CeCIL Annual Lecture - in Grimmond Lecture Theatre 1 from 6pm, preceded by a reception in the Grimmond Aphra foyer

Thursday, 29 Nov.      Professor Richard Drayton (King's College London)
The Right to Property vs. the Property of Rights: the British Empire and Private International Law

iii) CeCIL Workshop for LLM and PGR students

Spring Term    Date TBD