Reparations: ‘The jagged time of catastrophe’
Speaker: Vasuki Nesiah

Thursday 23 March, 18.00-20.00
Location: Eliot Lecture Theatre 2

Professor Vasuki Nesiah is based at New York University where she teaches human rights and law and social theory. She has published widely on the history and politics of human rights, humanitarianism, international criminal law, international feminisms and colonial legal history. Originally from Sri Lanka and a founding member of the movement Third World Approaches to International Law (TWAIL), she spent several years in practice at the International Center for Transitional Justice (ICTJ) before entering the academy full time.

Reception in Eliot Foyer, 17.00-18.00

For more information
www.kent.ac.uk/law/cecil