

By Kaci, age 12

wheelchairs get around and helping them collect things.

EVERYONE NEEDS A CHANCE TO HAVE A BETTER QUALITY IN LIFE.

Little Rex (the dog) was on the doorstep crying because it was abandoned. Once Mary started to feed the dog she felt the dog following her around everywhere and so she decided to get a lead for him and she took him on walks every day. Mary then realised that Rex was protecting her and he was making sure that nobody stole anything from her on her walks or made sure that she didn't run into anything. From then on she decided to help her blind friends and people in