

INSIDE OUT: AUTISTIC IDENTITIES, PARTICIPATORY RESEARCH & GENDER TWO DAY CONFERENCE WITH A DIFFERENCE

Day 1: Perspectives on participatory research practices, ethics and themes

Day 2: Perspectives on gender and creativity

Contributions are invited in the form of posters or creative artefacts** from projects that engage with the conference themes, issues and questions. These might include:

- Creative practices with autistic participants
- Participatory research, neurodiversity and inclusive practices
- Ethical issues in participatory autism research
- Creative research methodologies and neurodiversity
- Gender, sexuality and neurodiversity
- Monotropism and related concepts
- Interdisciplinary and inclusive research outcomes

Please provide a 150 word abstract outlining the rationale, content and form of the work to be featured (poster or creative artefact). Please send to playingapartconference@kent.ac.uk with the subject line "Inside Out Proposal". Please note the preferred language for this event is identity first (i.e. autistic person/s).

Thursday 4th & Friday
5th July

The School of Arts,
University of Kent

£25/day or £40/two days*

Deadline for proposals:
Friday 24th May 2019

The event will be inclusive & accessible

* fee waivers available by emailing the organisers

** See
<https://playingapartautisticgirls.org/2019/03/07/inside-out-conference/>

for links to contribution guidelines

playingapartautisticgirls.org

UNIVERSITY OF SURREY

University of Kent

School
of Arts

Arts & Humanities
Research Council