What we do

- 20 million people affected by humanitarian crises receive quality, life-saving humanitarian assistance.
- 100 million women and girls exercise their rights to sexual, reproductive and maternal health and are free from violence.
- 50 million poor and vulnerable people increase their food and nutrition security and their resilience to climate change.
- 30 million women have greater access to and control over economic resources.
Her time
Understanding the needs and preferences of women farmers, in enabling us to work with them to promote climate-smart agriculture, with a view to increasing resilience and promoting global food security
• Self recovery – shelter. Developing current GCRF project in Nepal and the Philippines.
• Enable the development of programming guidance, including techniques, effective communication with communities
• Research in our work. Shelter, FNS, GBV.
• Cost recovery!