

Social Psychology in the Age of AI

EASP 2026 Preconference · 30 June 2026 · Strasbourg, France

PROGRAMME

Time	Format	Session Content
09:00–10:15	Talk Panel 1 Four 15-min talks, each followed by a short Q&A	▶ A Small Misstep for Man, a Giant Mistake for AI: Variance Beliefs and Human–AI Impressions Schulman et al. ▶ Social Perceptions of Deadbots: Appropriateness, Risks, and Conditional Acceptance of Posthumous AI Riva et al. ▶ Choosing Empathy in the Age of AI: Psychological and Normative Considerations Cameron et al. ▶ For Youth, by Youth: Co-producing Safeguards for Generative AI Use with UK Adolescents Relinecke et al.
10:15–10:30	Coffee Break
10:30–11:20	Blitz Panel 1 Six 5-min talks + 20-min group discussion	▶ The Role of Egocentrism in Moral and Fairness Judgments of AI and Human Decisions Miazek et al. ▶ Substratism: Conceptualizing and Measuring Moral Bias Against AI Ladak et al. ▶ What Moral Motivations Do People Attribute to AI—and Which Ones Matter for Trust? A Multi-Country Study McKee et al. ▶ Why Do People Punish AI? de Mello et al. ▶ Gemini Is for Liberals and Grok for Conservatives? The Effect of Ideological Similarity on Trust in LLMs Wingen et al. ▶ People View Delegating All Research Tasks to GenAI as Untrustworthy, Inaccurate, and Immoral Conway
11:20–11:30	Short Break

11:30–12:30	Roundtable 1	“Under the scope of various social realities, does AI bring more benefit or harm?”
12:30–13:30	Lunch Break
13:30–14:45	Talk Panel 2 Four 15-min talks, each followed by a short Q&A	▶ Algorithmic Bias: A New Form of Implicit Prejudice Amodio et al. ▶ Implicit Bias in LLMs: Bias in Financial Advice Based on Implied Group Affiliation Etgar et al. ▶ Human-in-the-Loop Oversight of AI is Compromised by Political Preferences Dores-Cruz et al. ▶ Perceived Intergroup Competition Shapes Public Consent for Deregulating Artificial Intelligence Veitch et al.
14:45–15:00	Coffee Break
15:00–15:50	Blitz Panel 2 Six 5-min talks + 20-min group discussion	▶ LLM vs. Human Affective Connotations of Identities, Behaviours, and Settings Across Three Cultures Blaison et al. ▶ Supporting Non-Traditional Students in Distance Education with AI-Based Interventions Froehlich et al. ▶ An AI Answer is Worth $\frac{1}{5}$ of a Survey Response: The Disconnect Between Explicitly Reported Trust and Empirical Belief Updating Teitelbaum et al. ▶ Suspicious of AI? Perceived Autonomy and Interdependence Predict AI-Related Conspiracy Beliefs Qi et al. ▶ The Existence of Manual Mode Increases Human Blame for AI Mistakes Meyers et al. ▶ The State of AI Use in Academic Research and its Unintended Consequences Blindal et al.
15:50–16:00	Short Break
16:00–17:00	Roundtable 2	“How can social psychology inform AI development and regulation?”